Dies to Ask Ban Upon 'Anti' Firms

Says German-Americans Forced to Disseminate Propaganda to Save Relatives

Cites Evidence

Dies Reports Definite Program Is in Effect in U. S.

New York, Aug. 26 (AP)—Rep. Martin Dies, declaring that many German-Americans were being compelled to help disseminate Nazi propaganda in this country through fear for safety of their relatives abroad, announced today that he would seek enactment of a law forbidding the operation of any foreign-controlled organization in the United States.

Dies, chairman of a House committee investigating subversive activities, said he and his associates had obtained "definite evidence" that the country was being flooded with Nazi propaganda through the United States mails.

"The evidence shows," he said, "that there is a definite program in this country; first, to prevent any adequate national defense; second, to prevent this country from assisting England, and third, the presence of foreign agents in key industries in America places them in a strategic position for espionage and sabotage."

Central Agency

Dies, who begins a series of private hearings in New York this afternoon, said he was convinced that the axis powers had set up a central agency in Europe for the distribution of propaganda in this country.

"Under existing postal regulations," he said, "the dissemination of this propaganda does not cost Germany anything."

The United States has been divided into sections, he said, and literature is being mailed to persons on a master mailing list.

Not all of the recipients are sympathetic toward the Nazi-Fascist cause, he said, but their names have been obtained from relatives in Europe, sometimes forcibly, and they fear for the safety of these relatives, if they do not cooperate.

"I think these people are entitled to have the American government make a protest to Italy and Germany against this form of blackmail," Dies said.

'Important Letter'

Before introducing a bill to outlaw foreign-controlled organizations, he said he would write "an important letter" to President Roosevelt setting forth specific facts and asking his support of the measure. He also will seek the support of both major parties.

During the committee's recent hearings on the Pacific Coast, Dies said, it was ascertained that "10 per cent of the Italian population of San Francisco were openly Fascist."

"It was a significant thing," he added, "that of the 10 per cent the majority were employed in key industries."

Third Week of Debate Opens In Senate on Training Bill

Opposition Forces Admit Practically Everything Has Been Said and Vandenberg Says One Way or Another It Should Be Settled

Washington, Aug. 26 (AP)—Spurred by pressure from leaders and President Roosevelt, opposing forces in the bitter senate battle over compulsory military training talked today of a final vote this week, probably Thursday.

Senator Sheppard (D., Tex.), chairman of the military committee and floor leader for the Burke-Wadsworth bill, said any additional discussion would come from opponents, or those sponsoring amendments. The debate is now in its third week.

"I'm not going to make any speech because everything has been said," Senator Sheppard declared.

Even opposition leaders, such as Senators Vandenberg (R., Mich.) and Wheeler (D., Mont.), conceded that the final test was near.

"I think we'll get a vote probably in the middle of the week," Wheeler said.

Agrees With Barkley

Vandenberg said he agreed with Democratic Leader Barkley "that it is time to vote on conscription, one way or the other."

Two prominent anti-conscriptionists, Senators Holt (D., W. Va.) and Clark (D., Mo.), gave notice, however, that they might oppose any drastic attempt to curb debate.

Senator Barkley (D., Ky.), who has threatened to call night sessions if necessary to expedite action, forecast a final vote Wednesday or Thursday. He said that there would "not be more than 25 or 30 votes against" the bill.

Before a final vote can be taken, however, the Burke-Wadsworth measure must clear several hurdles. As it now stands the bill provides for immediate registration of all men between 21 and 31. An unspecified number of those registered would be subject to service at once.

Major Test Expected

The major test was expected on the proposal of Senator Maloney (D., Conn.) that conscription be delayed until January 1 to permit a further trial of the voluntary enlistment method for raising the man-power needed by the army.

Both camps look for a close vote here, but after President Roosevelt expressed his opposition Friday to any postponement, the pro-conscription leaders predicted that the Maloney proposal would be rejected by a margin of from two to four votes.

Another major piece of defense program legislation—the excess profits tax bill—was reported bogged down in the House ways and means committee. Inability to reach agreement on some of its present provisions caused the committee to call on treasury and congressional tax experts to submit revised tax formulae today.

Anticipating eventual enactment of the Burke-Wadsworth bill, Senator Barkley disclosed that he would seek the quickest action possible on making money available to put the program into effect.

Would Offer Amendment

He said he would offer an amendment to the conscription bill, authorizing the necessary appropriation.

The cost of the conscription program has been estimated at $1,000,000,000 a year, but Barkley's request was expected to cover only the initial installment of that amount.

In the non-legislative defense field, Secretary Ickes yesterday filed with the national defense commission a recommendation that major war industries be developed in the Rocky Mountain states, California and the Pacific northwest.

In another report to the commission, Federal Security Administrator McNutt stated that vocational summer schools in 283 cities had trained 20,000 men for skilled jobs in defense industries. An additional 80,000 were now receiving instruction, he said.

Senator Vandenberg declared in a statement last night that he thought "the national defense council instead of being advisory should have power to act."

He charged that the defense program was "bogging down," and asserted "it is time to find out why."

Car Pays Impromptu Visit Early Sunday Morning

The porch of this house at 4 Stuyvesant street was wrecked and a car driven by Joseph Ferrara of 401 West 28th street, New York city, was damaged when the car ran up over the sidewalk, through a fence and crashed into the house at 4:15 o'clock Sunday morning. Mr. Ferrara, in reporting the crash to police headquarters, said he was driving down Broadway hill when an unidentified car coming up Broadway hill cut the corner and in order to avoid a head-on collision, Mr. Ferrara swung to the left and his car ran up over the curb, across the sidewalk and into the house. No personal injuries were reported. Car and house were damaged. According to the police report, the house, which stands at the intersection of Stuyvesant street and Broadway, is owned by Robert and Louis Ortale.

McNary at Salem Home on Eve of His Party Notification

Vice Presidential Nominee Will Give Speech at State Fair Grounds; Throng Expected

Salem, Ore., Aug. 26 (AP)—It was peace and quiet today for Charles L. McNary among the trees, creeks and the honking of geese at his country home, while Salem bustled with activity on the eve of his notification of the Republican vice-presidential nomination.

Although a meeting with party leaders was scheduled for some time during the day, the veteran Oregon senator planned to take it easy in preparation for the strenuous day ahead. His speech was completed several days ago.

But while McNary rested, the people of his home town buzzed with excitement, awaiting the hour when the crowd at the state fair grounds that he accepts the nomination.

State Police Superintendent Charles P. Pray, said his plans called for a crowd of between 50,000 and 75,000 persons. The city's population is slightly under 30,000.

Special trains will bring delegations from all sections of the state and many thousands are expected to drive to the ceremony.

The whole affair is very upsetting to McNary's 5-year-old adopted daughter, Charlotte. She didn't want him to accept the nomination "because he is away so much."

Early Morning Crash Kills Cossackie Youth

Stephen Clark, 20, Is Injured Fatally at 5:55 A. M.; Lawrence Dean, 19, of Ravena Is Held by Molyneaux and Will Be Arraigned

Stephen Clark, 20, of Cossackie, died in the Kingston Hospital, while Lawrence Deane, 19, of Ravena, is being held by Sheriff Abram Molyneaux on a charge of criminal negligence. He was to be arraigned before a justice in the town of Ulster this afternoon as the result of an auto crash near the city line on Albany avenue at 5:55 o'clock this morning.

Deane, who was injured about the head and body in the crash, told Kingston police that he had fallen asleep at the wheel while driving the car.

Dr. Jack Lehner, who attended Clark, said death was due to a fractured skull and internal injuries.

According to the police the car was traveling south toward Kingston and started to leave the road about 115 feet north of Harwich street. It kept gradually swerving off the road and crashed into a tree at the intersection of Harwich street and Albany avenue.

The marks and debris on the highway show, according to the police, that the car after crashing into the tree had rebounded and had turned over more than once and came to a stop, 78 feet from the tree, and was upside down against an electric light pole, just inside the city limits.

Those who heard the crash called police headquarters and Officers Hyatt and Relyea in one of the police radio cars raced to the scene.

The officers found Clark lying with his feet in the roadway and his body lying across the curb. It was seen that he was critically hurt.

Deane was found walking around the car in a dazed condition. He told the officers that he did not know what happened, for he had fallen asleep at the wheel. Later in police headquarters he told a similar story.

Clark and Deane were rushed to the Kingston Hospital in the corner ambulance which the police had called. Deane, after having his wounds dressed, was brought back to police headquarters until the crash had been investigated by Chief of Police Charles Phinney and Lieutenant Fred Stoudt.

They found that the crash occurred outside the city limits and Sheriff Molyneaux was notified of the town.

Defense Officials Say 6,747 Plane Contracts Made

Figures Were Contained in Findings Based on Treasury Department Group's Estimate

Washington, Aug. 26 (AP)—The defense commission reported to President Roosevelt today that contracts for 6,747 army and navy planes were outstanding as of August 17, despite the fact that funds for much of the aircraft procurement program were still tied up in the $5,008,000,000 defense bill.

The figures were contained in a report based on treasury department figures which were brought to the White House by Robert Horton, publicity director of the commission.

The report said that, as of August 17, contracts were "in the works" for 3,916 army planes, including 2,029 combat and observation planes and 1,887 other types, primarily training.

For the navy on that date, Horton said, contracts had been let for 2,831, including 1,221 combat and observation, and 1,610 other types, mostly training.

Horton explained these figures covered contracts outstanding for planes yet to be delivered. Dates of delivery for the planes were not disclosed.

He said it was impossible to contract for planes to fill out the present program until Congress passed the $5,008,000,000 measure.

The report was made public at a time when congressional critics contended the defense program was bogging down. Senator Vandenberg (R., Mich.) made such a statement last night and asked for an investigation. Senator Byrd (D., Va.) said only 343 combat planes had been ordered in the last 100 days.

Horton said the army and navy anticipated delivery of about 2,200 planes in the latter half of this year and about 2,500 in the first half of 1941.

Sky-Writers Busy

London, Aug. 26 (AP)—Mysterious sky-writing planes were reported over a southeast England town this morning. The planes first made what looked like a giant question mark, then followed with an arrow pointing down toward the town.

Today's Assaults Hit at Dover, Likely Spot for Invasion

Berlin, Aug. 26 (AP)—The "preliminaries" of the battle of Britain are over, the semi-official Dienst Aus Deutschland said tonight, and now begins the detailed destruction of Britain's war industries. Its statement came on the heels of the heaviest air attack Berlin has suffered since the war began.

Raiders Fought Off

(By the Associated Press)

British RAF pursuit planes drove off two waves of German bombers headed for London late today in a violent battle fought at a height of 20,000 feet.

Striking on a 30-mile front, Hitler's bombers smashed at the "Hell's Corner" channel port of Dover—the ancient town where Julius Caesar landed to invade England 1,995 years ago—and sought to penetrate London's defenses for the sixth time in 48 hours.

At least 10 of the Nazi raiders were reported shot down.

More than 50 Britons were killed in the hail of German bombs which fell inland as far as the midlands, the heart of Britain's industrial region.

London's densely-packed millions huddled in underground shelters while alarm signals shrieked for 37 minutes, but no German planes were sighted above the city.

The raiders, streaking over the southeast coast from bases on the German-held coast only 22 miles away, set great fires at Folkestone and bombed crowded streets, inflicting many casualties.

All of the towns attacked—including Folkestone, Deal, and the cathedral city of Canterbury—and the south foreland region, also under fire, lie in the Dover area which might be used as the gateway for a Nazi land invasion.

Waves of Bombers

Waves of British RAF bombing planes, in a display of rising aerial might, thundered over Berlin in a three-hour raid before dawn today, while Nazi warplanes dumped high explosive, incendiary and "shriek" bombs on the London area for the fifth time in 48 hours.

Berlin reported 1,500 bombs dropped on 38 objectives in the British isles during the night. "Small fires and property damage" resulted in the London raid, the British said.

Simultaneously, aviation experts in London estimated that 3,000 German planes—about one-sixth of Hitler's total operating strength in the air—have been thrown into the 9-week-old assault on the island kingdom.

Ortiz Will Rule

Argentine Head to Keep His Office, High Official Reports at Capital

Buenos Aires, Aug. 26 (AP)—President Roberto M. Ortiz of Argentina, whose resignation was rejected by Congress by a vote of 170 to 1, has decided to continue in office, according to a high government official.

Some observers continued to believe Ortiz would seek cabinet reorganization because of attacks on several ministers in connection with a congressional investigation into an army land purchase.

The president submitted his resignation because a congressional committee report on the purchase, while it did not name Ortiz, charged two of his ministers with negligence.

219 Are Killed

State Auto Accidents Last Month Total Second Lowest July Toll

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 26 (AP)—Automobile accidents killed 219 New Yorkers last month, second lowest July toll on record and four per cent under the month's fatalities of a year ago.

The 6,351 mishaps reported also caused 8,750 injuries, as compared with 9,394 in 1939, according to a report from the state motor vehicle bureau.

The state motor vehicle bureau estimated an 80 per cent increase in fatal accidents involving women drivers.

Local Death Record

Funeral services for Mrs. Florence C. Hargraves of 20 Rensselaer street, were held Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. at the funeral home of the Rev. Arthur S. Cole. Burial was in Mount Hope cemetery, Saugerties.

Funeral services for Mary Ann Carroll, of 154 Main street, who died last Tuesday, were held from her late home Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, where the Rev. John D. Simmons celebrated a high Mass of requiem for the repose of her soul. The children's choir chanted the responses to the Mass with the accompaniment of Martin Kelly and Mrs. Poe, who at the conclusion of the services sang "Ave Maria." During the holy sacrifice of the Mass the Rev. J. W. Hughes, of St. Ann's Church, Saugerties, was present with the choir. The funeral procession consisted of relatives, neighbors and friends called at the home. Many floral offerings and spiritual bouquets in the form of Mass cards were received. Friday evening Father Simmons called at the home for the recitation of the holy rosary. Casket bearers were Durham Reynolds, Charles McWilliam, Patrick Duffy, Charles Leahy, Louis Hulsair and William Urell. The large funeral cortege proceeded to St. Mary's cemetery, where Father Simmons pronounced the final absolution.

The funeral of James B. Leahy was held from his late home, 29 Lafayette avenue, Saturday morning at 10 o'clock and at St. Joseph's Church at 10:30 o'clock, where a high Mass of requiem was offered for the repose of his soul by the Rev. James O'Hara. Seated within the chancel was the Rev. J. Warren Hughes. The responses to the Mass were by St. Joseph's choir. Soloist Paul Purcell sang at the offertory Ave Verum, by Weiland, and after the Mass, Ave Maria, by Rosemary. Mass. Frank Rafferty assisted at the organ. The church was filled with relatives and friends. The funeral cortege was large and there were many flowers and Mass cards. Friday evening The Freeman Social Club, of which Mr. Leahy's son is a member, visited the home in a body to pay their last respects. Later the same evening St. Joseph's Holy Name Society, led by the Rev. John D. Simmons, assembled at the late residence and recited the rosary. Headed by Superintendent James F. Loughran, a very large representative body from the county department of highways, attended the Mass. The casket bearers were Frank O'Reilly, William Eschly, Richard Dunn, James Leahy, Thomas Edwards and John Eckert. Burial was in the family plot in St. Ann's cemetery, Saugerties. Rev. John P. McAffrey and Rev. W. Hughes giving the final absolution as the body was laid to rest.

On Wednesday evening 30 members of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the United Commercial Travelers of which Mrs. Charles R. Abbott was chaplain, called at the home in Glenierie Lake Park and conducted their rites with the Rev. Clarence E. Brown officiating. On Thursday afternoon private funeral services were held for the family and relatives. The Rev. William Renison, rector of Trinity Church, conducted the services. The bearers were sons and sons-in-law of the deceased, James Abbott, Charles W. Abbott, Carl Yetzer, William Young, James

Frank Oliver Dies Saturday, Aged 88

Deceased Born in Catskill: Ancestor Was Aaron Burr

Frank Oliver died on Saturday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Burdette R. Tuttle, 16 Ponckhockie street. Funeral services will be held from the late home on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock with burial in Millerton. Mr. Oliver was 88 years old on April 1. Mr. Oliver was born in Catskill, the son of William Oliver and Anna M. Jennings Oliver. The family name was originally Oliver. His great grandfather went from France to England where he married an English woman and settled near London, and later Anglicized his name.

Mr. Oliver's grandfather, Joseph Oliver, came to America at the age of 21 years. He settled in Providence, R. I., and married Sarah Thornton, a relative of Matthew Thornton, one of the signers of the Declaration of Independence. They later moved to Catskill.

On his mother's side Mr. Oliver was of New York and New England colonial ancestry. His ancestors on the Jennings, Thomas, Burr, Emmons and Ouellet sides took part in the American Revolution. His grandmother was a near relative of Aaron Burr. His grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Jennings lived for some time in Kingston, and his mother was a teacher in old Kingston Academy leaving there to take the principalship of the old Catskill Academy.

Mr. Oliver received his early education in the old Catskill Academy. He was connected for a while with the D. C. Hulbert department store, leaving his position to take the deputy postmaster of the Catskill office. After holding this position for several years he resigned to become the secretary and paymaster of the Harris mills of which he later became a stockholder and an officer.

After the failure of the mills he engaged in the grocery business, boot and shoe, in West Catskill for a period of 10 years when he sold the business and embarked in the real estate and fancy poultry business for several years.

In 1908 Mr. Oliver was called to Millerton by the death of his sister's husband, Dr. L. Valentine. Mr. Oliver was an undertaker in that village. Mr. Oliver after completing a course of studies continued the undertaking business for his sister for a period of 20 years when her son, Oliver W. Valentine, took it over.

While residing in Millerton, Mr. Oliver was elected for several terms as superintendent of the poor, and also served for a number of years as superintendent of the Ironclad cemetery.

Since retiring from active business Mr. Oliver has made his home in Kingston with his daughter, Mrs. Tuttle, and during the years he had resided here he had made a host of friends.

On September 1, 1875, Mr. Oliver married Francis A. Taylor of Rome, Pa., who died about four months ago. The only survivors are his daughter, Mrs. Tuttle, and two grandchildren, Mrs. Francis Anderson Smith, wife of Arthur L. Smith of Jamaica, L. I., and Frank Oliver Anderson of New Jersey; two great grandchildren, Frank Robert Anderson and Janet Barbara Smith; and his sister, Mrs. Jennie Oliver Valentine of Millerton. Mr. Oliver was a brother of the late Rev. William C. Oliver of the New York Methodist Conference.

Mr. Oliver had been a member of the Methodist Church since early manhood, but since residing in Kingston he had attended the Congregational Church of Abruyn street where his daughter is organist. The funeral services will be in charge of the Rev. John Heidenreich, pastor of the Congregational Church.

50 Britons Die In Nazi Raids

in downtown Berlin as at least four waves of RAF bombers streaked over the cloud-blanketed German capital—Berlin's fifth air-raid alarm since the start of the war—and hundreds of anti-aircraft guns set up a terrific din. The roar of airplane motors was plainly audible in the heart of the city, but Nazis asserted that there were no casualties and that no bombs fell in the capital itself.

The Germans acknowledged that at least one incendiary bomb landed in a village near the Berlin industrial suburb of Spandau, 20 miles from the capital, while others fell in the north Berlin suburb of Rosenthal, setting fire to a three-room garden hut.

Plane Is Shot Down

"One of the planes which crossed Berlin was shot down by anti-aircraft guns on its return flight," said DNB, the official German news agency.

In the raid on Berlin—which the Nazi high command asserted was the first time in the war that British planes had flown over the German capital—the RAF squadrons made a round-trip of about 1,200 miles from England, compared with the 200-mile round trip required of German bombers attacking London from Nazi-held bases on the French coast.

Swastika-marked raiders struck back with increasing ferocity this morning, bombing a wide area in Wales and roaring over southeast England.

Two Nazi warplanes bombed a southeast coast town for 20 minutes at the peak of morning shopping, killing several persons and damaging buildings.

Minimal of their own fate if conquered by Germany, Britons read with interest a Berlin dispatch quoting Arthur Greiser, Danzig Nazi leader, as declaring in a nation-wide broadcast that Poles should be considered as servant people.

"The Pole is the servant of the German and will remain so forever," Greiser said.

Some Casualties

The British admitted "some casualties, a few fatal," in a German air raid on a Midlands town last night, and the British censor tardily disclosed that the historic old St. Giles Church in "the city," London's Wall street district, was hit Saturday night by Nazi bombs, along with the statue of Milton outside the church, which is known to thousands of American tourists.

Hitler's high command reported that Birmingham, teeming industrial center in the English Midlands, was bombed again during the night by Nazi planes making "concentric attacks"—apparently slicing in from all directions.

Commenting on the Midlands raid, the British ministry of home security declared: "Municipal, industrial and residential property damage was caused. All the fires were either extinguished or under control by the morning, and good work was done by the ARP and AFS services (Air Raid Precaution and Auxiliary Fire-fighting Services)."

The British air ministry said the RAF raids over Germany struck at armament factories in the Berlin area and other targets in northwest Germany and the Ruhr.

Germany said losses on Saturday were 64 British planes and 20 German and on Sunday 72 British and 14 German.

Germans Rest Briefly

After Saturday night's and Sunday morning's blows at London, in which great fires were set, the Germans rested briefly during the day, then resumed their assaults.

Times Must Give Back Job, Wages To Two Employees

Labor Board Orders New York Paper Also to Stop All Interference With Union Activities

Washington, Aug. 26 (AP).—In a split decision, the labor board ordered the New York Times today to reinstate with back wages two former employees alleged discharged because of union activities. The company was also directed to "cease discouraging membership" in any labor organization of its employees.

The reinstatement order involved Grace Porter, who had been employed up to January, 1936, as a confidential secretary, and Fred Jaeger, a business reporter. Miss Porter was said by the board to be a member of AFL's Bookkeepers, Stenographers and Accountants' Union, while Jaeger was a member of the Newspaper Guild of New York.

At the same time the board directed the company to replace Isaac Gilbert in the position from which it said he was discriminatorily discharged because of his membership in the American Newspaper Guild (CIO).

Dissenters in Part

Board Member William M. Leiserson dissented in part, holding that the complaint against the Times Company, based on charges filed by the American Newspaper Guild, should not have been amended to include Miss Porter three years after her dismissal.

"Her employer suspected her of having some connection with the communistic unit on the Times," Leiserson said. "I am of the opinion that the National Labor Relations Act does not prevent an employer from discharging a confidential secretary whom he does not want to keep because he suspects her of communistic connections."

Leiserson also dissented on the finding that Jaeger and Gilbert had been discharged and transferred, respectively, because of their union activities.

He concurred with the board's finding, however, that supervisory officers of the Times had "interfered" with the employees' right to self organization.

Board Member Edwin S. Smith also filed a partial dissenting opinion in opposition to the board's decision to dismiss an allegation that Leonard D. Goldsmith, an advertising solicitor, had been discriminatorily discharged.

Presbyterian Will Hold Annual Picnic Wednesday

The annual picnic of the members of the Sunday school and congregation of the Roundout Presbyterian Church will be held on Wednesday afternoon and evening at Williams Lake. The children will meet at the school that afternoon at 2 o'clock where waiting automobiles will convey them to the lake.

Each child will carry a basket lunch and all will sit down to eat at 5:30 o'clock that afternoon at the lake where the school will furnish ice cream and free bathing facilities to the members of the school.

All members of the congregation who are willing to donate the use of their cars should get in touch with Irving W. Scott, superintendent of the school.

Lewis Young

A very attractive wedding took place at the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Walter Washington of 236 Catherine street on Sunday, August 19, at 5 p. m., when their daughter, Miss Gertrude Young, became the bride of George Lewis of Malden. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John B. Holmes of Albany. The bride was attended by Miss Ella Childs of East Kingston. The bridegroom was attended by William Faulkner of Kingston. The bride was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Lucy Washington. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis will reside in a newly furnished apartment on 29 Broadway.

The registration questions cover personal identification; the manner of entry into this country; occupation; military service; membership in social or other organizations, and any activity in promoting the interests of a foreign government.

The penalty for failure to register or for making false statements is $1,000 fine or six months imprisonment or both.

Solicitor General Biddle assured aliens in a broadcast last night that "if you have nothing to hide, you have nothing to fear."

Aliens must appear in person at the post offices, but they may register at any post office where registration is done.

The registration and fingerprint data will be filed at the justice department and kept confidential, although a cross check may be made against criminal or other records.

British Planes Give Fair Foreign Feature

Leipzig, Germany, Aug. 26 (AP).—British warplanes carried out a promise to provide a "foreign feature" for Leipzig's famous fall fair by visiting this German industrial city early today and driving thousands of visitors and residents to cover for 25 minutes.

The British, who dropped leaflets several days ago warning of the raid, were greeted by a heavy anti-aircraft barrage. No bomb damage was immediately apparent in the city itself.

Approximately 5,000 foreign buyers were among the visitors thronging the city when the British raiders thundered overhead.

Despite the background of war against which the fair opened, German officials declared it differed in no wise from its peacetime predecessors with some 20 foreign countries represented among the more than 6,000 exhibitors.

Miss Leigh was named as co-respondent in Miss Esmond's untested suit.

Two Bus Concerns Receive Sanction On Exchange Plan

Albany, Aug. 26.—The consent of the Public Service Commission has been given to Mountain View Coach Lines, Inc., and Hudson Transit Corporation to exercise an agreement for the transportation of their passengers on the routes which the two companies operate between Albany and Suffern.

The agreement provides for the rental of each other's buses to be operated over the different routes of the two companies so as to eliminate the physical transferring of passengers and baggage from the coaches of one company to those of the other at Newburgh where the lines of the two companies connect, thereby providing through service on the route of the Mountain View Company between Albany and Newburgh and on the line of the Hudson Transit Company between Newburgh and the New Jersey state line at Suffern from where the buses continue to New York city.

Heretofore, Mountain View and Hudson Transit interchanged passengers at Newburgh on co-ordinated time schedules, a connecting bus being available there within 20 minutes. The requirement of changing has resulted in inconvenience to passengers and apparently no little confusion and irritation to both the traveling public and the two companies.

In case of a full load of passengers as much as 25 minutes has been lost in the transfer operation. The agreement between the two companies will permit the coaches of each company to continue through Newburgh over the route of the other. As the volume of traffic increases, it is expected that more through trips will be established. Approximately 100 passengers a day on each line are expected to benefit from this arrangement.

A report recommending approval of the agreement between the bus companies presented to the commission by Commissioner George R. Lunn states that this operating agreement is distinctly in the public interest inasmuch as it provides for a much more convenient method of transportation by avoidance of the transfer at Newburgh. If for any reason the proposed operation does not work out as expected the commission has the power to make changes in the operation so that the public interest would be best served, points out the report.

McCardle-Bertrand

At a nuptial Mass Saturday morning at 11 o'clock in St. Joseph's Church, with the Rev. John Simmons as celebrant, Miss Margaret Bertrand, daughter of Mr. Margaret Bertrand, of 165 Bruyn avenue, and John J. McCardle, son of Mr. and Mrs. James McCardle, of 34 Chapel street, were united in marriage.

The bride, gowned in white marquisette with a finger tip veil, was escorted to the altar by her brother-in-law, William Beacher. Mrs. William Beacher, her sister, was the matron of honor. She wore a peach mousseline de soie with a straw hat trimmed in peach, and carried a bouquet of roses and delphiniums. Miss Phyllis Beacher, niece of the bride, and Miss Jean McCardle, daughter of the groom, were junior bridesmaids. Francis McCardle, brother of the groom, was best man, and his other brother, Thomas, and Walter Hoffman acted as ushers. Organ music was furnished by Mrs. Frank Rafferty.

There was a wedding breakfast for members of the immediate families at Maple Arch Home, and a reception at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. McCardle, on a wedding trip to Washington, D. C., and Virginia Beach. Upon their return they will reside at 165 Bruyn avenue.

Roosa-Brodhead

Saturday afternoon at 2:30 in St. James Methodist Church, Miss Phyllis Mae Brodhead of 12 Elizabeth street became the bride of Albert M. Roosa of 75 Marius street. The Rev. Arthur G. Carroll, district superintendent of the Methodist Church, officiated. Attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Brodhead.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her mother, Mrs. Merin Brodhead, was dressed in a suit of powder blue, with wine colored accessories. She carried a corsage of gardenias. The matron of honor wore a navy blue suit, with wine accessories, and her corsage was of talisman roses.

During the wedding ceremony, music was furnished by Miss Lucinda Merritt. A reception was held for the immediate families after the church ritual. The groom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Roosa of 75 Marius street.

Mr. and Mrs. Roosa are on a honeymoon by automobile through the southern states. Upon their return they will reside at 231 Albany avenue.

Golden Wedding

The Rev. and Mrs. Horace Oberhaltzer of 1351 Union street, Schenectady, on September 16, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. The Rev. Mr. Oberhaltzer will be remembered as the pastor for many years of Christ Lutheran Church in Woodstock. During his pastorate at Woodstock he observed the 50th anniversary of his ordination to the ministry. Now well over 90 years of age, he has retired for some years.

POLITENESS MAY BE OVER-
DONE IN THANKING OTHERS
FOR THEIR KIND-
NESSES"Thank You" Notes to Men
Friends of Hostess Unnecessary,
Says Emily Post

It is always better to be a little too polite than not to be courteous at all, but sometimes notes of thanks are really unnecessary as in the following situation: "I have just come home from visiting a schoolmate. Some of her friends gave parties for me when I was there and I am writing to these girls to thank them again for all their kindnesses. But what about the men friends who took me to dances and to some of the parties? My friend arranged all this, of course, and I hadn't known any of these men before. Shall I write them notes, too, or might this seem overdone?"

In answer to this: Writing notes to these men would be unnecessary. If you thanked them when you left, that is quite enough. Or perhaps, if you happened to see one of them more often than the others, you might send him a greeting card sometime when you come across one that is an amusing (rather than sentimental) reminder of almost any occurrence during your visit—but do not send it now.

Guest's Procedure at Reception

Dear Mrs. Post: When going to a very large afternoon reception as a stranger to the hosts, (1) How does one present oneself? Every one who will be with me is also a stranger. (2) How long must we stay at this reception, and when we leave, do we go out quietly, and say nothing? Or should we say "Good-bye and thank you" at least to some one?

Answer: (1) You tell the hostess your name with title, if you are married, or the elderly spinster, and without title if you are a young girl or a man. (2) You stay as long or as short a time as you please. If you leave almost immediately, it is better to go without saying good-bye, and thereby attracting the attention of your host to your going. But if you stay until the queue of arriving guests is no longer demanding the attention of your hostess, you say "Good-bye and thank you."

Putting a Glass Sauter on the Tablecloth

Dear Mrs. Post: The other day you said that a glass saucer under a stemmed glass was too small to put down on the tablecloth at any time. Haven't you seen the small saucers that are often used under finger bowls and put down upon the table?

Answer: One might see many things done, but this does not always make them right. Correctly, the small saucer under a finger bowl is put upon a plate. This is not merely a long established convention of table-setting, but a matter of proportion. A five or six-inch plate is too small for a plate—much. Every saucer, whether of glass or china, must either have a coffee or tea or chocolate cup on it or a plate under it. A finger bowl is not considered a cup.

(Released by The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

Mrs. Post is sorry she can no longer answer personal letters. She is glad, however, to have many printed slips on a variety of subjects to offer to her readers. Today's slip is "Table Settings." Be sure to send a three-cent stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request to Mrs. Post, in care of this paper, P. O. Box 150, Times Square Station, New York, N. Y.

Two to Benedictine

Floyd Williams, 40, of Box 315, East Kingston, and his daughter, Margaret, 16, were injured, but not seriously in an auto crash at noon on Saturday at East Chester street and Flatbush avenue. Both were treated at the Benedictine Hospital and later discharged.

In reporting the accident to the police, Mr. Williams claimed that he was driving over Flatbush avenue and when the traffic light turned green into East Chester street, when his car was struck by a car driven by William Szysz, 56, of R. F. D. 2, Saugerties, who was driving over East Chester street.

Mr. Szysz, however, claimed that he was traveling north on East Chester street, and that Williams turned into East Chester street when the traffic light was still red.

Mr. Williams was treated at the hospital for a cut over the left eye and for shock. His daughter was treated for shock.

—About Interruptions

It's getting to be an American habit—this interrupting the other fellow at work or play.

You probably don't think you're guilty. In fact, you may surprise yourself if you check up.

The next time you get ready to ask a question of the man at the next desk, stop a minute to see if he is at his telephone or talking to someone in the office.

It's easy to wait until the other person finishes his dictating or his conference, or lifts his pencil—so easy that most of us forget to wait.

There are too many other times when we interrupt people. The late-to-bed fellow often telephones friends who must go to bed early.

IT'S SORT OF BACKING UP MY "DO NOT DISTURB" SIGN.

because they have to get up early. More rare, perhaps, but just as annoying, is the fellow who works all night and cannot resist calling his friends about an hour before their usual getting up time.

The housekeeper probably has more interruptions in a day than any other worker. She accepts most of them as part of her day. But she frowns on the friend-with-a-maid who habitually comes to call on the weekly cleaning morning, the neighbor who chats on the telephone long after our housewife has explained she must take a cake from the oven, or the luncheon guest who drops in on a busy day.

And the unluckiest fellow of all is the man who doesn't take a trip during his vacation and stays at home for golf and a rest. He's certain to get unnecessary telephone calls from his office.

Many mothers are teaching their children to value their play hours by setting aside definite time for chores the children do at home. These mothers never call their children from play unless the errands to be run are actual demands of the moment—not things that could have been done at the regular work time.

Returns to Duties
City Marshall John Melville, who has been ill at his home by illness for several weeks, has recovered and resumed his duties today at the city hall.

The Kingston Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold a basket lunch picnic at Forsyth Park, Wednesday, August 28. All members and friends are invited.

A Strike for Beauty,
A Spare for Health

Mary Jane Hubert, a champion, found her way to health via bowling after an accident left her with a disabled leg.

By BETTY CLARKE

AP Feature Service Writer

For several years there's been a theory that you can stretch your way to beauty, that the more you stretch, the more beautiful you are.

Now the theory is: The more rhythm you get into regular stretching, the more health and the more grace you add to your beauty.

So it's a heyday for sports like swimming, tennis and bowling.

The better you play the game, the more rhythmical stretching you're supposed to do and the more graceful you should become.

Take bowling, for example. The new season will soon open.

Swear by It

Feminine bowling enthusiasts swear by bowling as an aid to changing a bulky midriff of relaxed muscles into healthy slenderness.

They also say good bowling helps put roundness into two-thin necks and chests.

Many women bowlers recommend careful timing and correct footwork, not only to add to the skill of your game, but also to develop proper balance of your weight and improve posture.

The stance is all-important. They insist. And the way to get it, they say, is to stand 15 to 20 feet back of the foul line, with your body at full height, your shoulders parallel with the foul line.

Go Slowly at First

If you're going to get the most out of a game in the way of fun and better figure, they say, take it slowly at first and in small doses.

Then progress, if you wish, toward an hour of bowling a day to keep the bulges away.

DAILY
MENUS

By MRS. ALEXANDER GEORGE

To make the most of vegetables:

Corn Stuffed Tomatoes
6 large firm tomatoes
6 large firm tomatoes (hollowed out)
2 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons minced onions
3 tablespoons minced green peppers (optional)
1½ cups corn
½ cup soft bread
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon celery salt
Simmer onions, peppers and corn three minutes in fat heated in a frying pan. Lightly add bread and seasonings. Stuff tomatoes. Fit into a shallow pan with a cup of boiling water added. Bake 25 minutes, in a moderate oven. Baste three times.

Cucumber Relish
2 quarts sliced cucumbers (3 inches long)
2 onions, sliced (2 inches in diameter)
2 green peppers, sliced
1 red pepper sliced
1/3 cup salt
2 teaspoons celery seed
2 teaspoons mustard seed
1½ teaspoon turmeric
1½ cups dark brown sugar
3 cups (about) vinegar
Mix vegetables and salt. Soak over night. In the morning, drain and rinse with boiling water. Add sugar and seasonings and vinegar to cover. Slowly bring to the boiling point. Simmer 15 minutes. Pour into sterilized jars and seal immediately.

Speeded Medley Apple Jam
8 pounds apples
3 cups water
2 cups raspberries (fresh or canned)
8 cups granulated sugar
2 teaspoons cinnamon
1 teaspoon nutmeg
1 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
Wash and quarter apples. Do not discard cores or skins. Add water and cook slowly, tightly covering until apples are soft, until the jam is thick. Seal immediately in sterilized jars.

Group Has Outing

The bungalow colony of Zegel's Casino in Rosendale chartered a bus from Henry Myer to convey a group to Forsyth Park in Kingston recently. Everyone had a good time and all thanked Mrs. Florence Zegel and her sister, Mrs. Terry, for their part in the outing.

TESTED AND APPROVED BY THE

MCCORMICK CONSUMER BOARD

1½ cup sugar 1½ cups cream

4 eggs whites 2 tps. McCormick

stiffly beaten mick vanilla

Boil sugar and water together until it spins a thread (about 3 minutes).

Pour the syrup over the beaten egg whites and beat until cold. Stir in whipped cream and vanilla. Freeze in a mechanical refrigerator without stirring. Serve in parfait glasses with whipped cream. Serves 4.

NOTE:—Better ingredients mean better results with any recipe. Use McCormick's rich, pure essence. Vanilla—it's "top" for fine flavoring quality. Ask your grocer for McCormick's 7th, spices and extracts.

To Hold Outing

The Finnish colony at Rifton will hold an all-day outing at Lindholm's on the Rock School road, Rifton, proceeds of which are to be used for the benefit of Finnish war victims. The outing will start at 2 p. m. Admission is free. Events of the day are competitive games, softball, horse shoe pitching and novelty races for young and old. Prizes will be awarded to the winners. Entertainment will include singing, dance music, traditional Finnish folk songs. The public is invited.

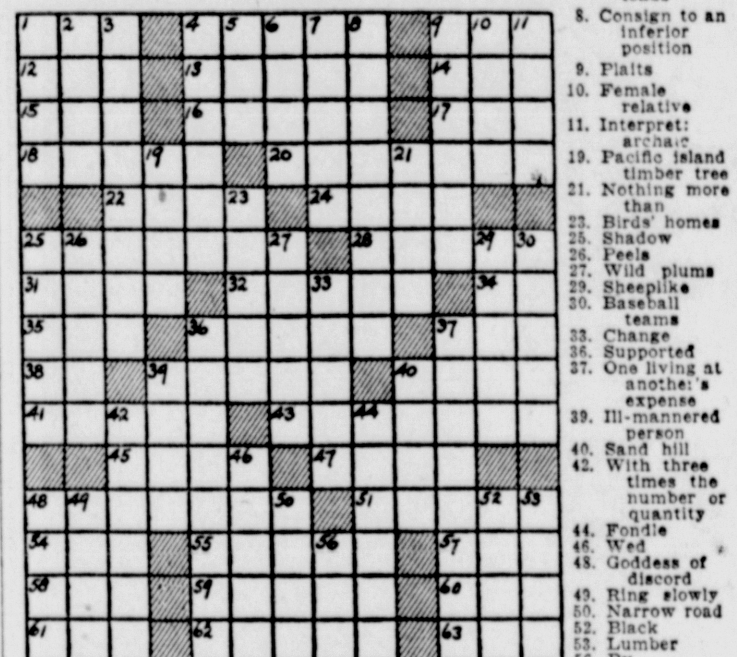

Aggregate purse awards having an estimated value of $36,000 will be distributed to the country's top-ranking reimen during the six-day Grand Circuit meeting, starting at Syracuse Monday, August 26th, at the 100th anniversary New York State Fair.

School Opening
Rules Are GivenPrincipal Dumm Releases
Registration Schedule

The following instructions relative to the opening of school next week were given today by Principal Clarence Dumm:

All students entering Kingston High School September 3 will please observe the following:

All students who were last year in Kingston High School and are returning again this year are to report at 8:30 a. m. to the same rooms as last year. All students who were in other high schools last year and are transferring to Kingston High School should report at 8:30 a. m. to the front study hall A, which is located on the first floor directly across from the superintendent's office.

At 1 p. m. all new entrants to Kingston High School should report to the high school auditorium. This group shall include all who have been promoted from the Myron J. Michael School and all first year students who wish to register for homemaking, shop or art courses. All new high school students just entering the first year who are taking the college entrance, Latin, academic and business courses, should report to the Myron J. Michael School at 8:30 a. m. Tuesday morning.

All high school students who are 16 years of age or over and wish to plan short-time schedules must see the principal, Mr. Dumm, this week before the opening of school September 3.

Post graduates will not be admitted until Friday afternoon, September 6, at 1 o'clock. They are not to be around the building until that time.

All students, especially new students, are reminded that it is very necessary to come provided with writing materials as these will not be provided by the school. They should know their school trustee and such similar information as is necessary for a complete registration.

The principal's office will be open all week between 8:30 and 4:30 o'clock for the benefit of any who may wish to consult the principal relative to student high school problems.

Two Big Events
To Bring Parks
Season to Close

Kingston's playground season closes at noon on Saturday, and two big events mark the closing week of the city's recreation program. The first is the city-wide final Community Night to be held Thursday evening in Hasbrouck Park, while on Friday evening the final exhibition and entertainment will be held in the Municipal Auditorium.

For the final Community Night program talent from all of the city parks will participate in the Hasbrouck Park show. The activities will commence at 6:30 o'clock with a softball game between the playground directors and a team from the Board of Public Works, which will be followed with the stage program.

Awards for the winners of the recent On-Wheels Carnival and the city Olympics will be made Thursday evening.

Friday morning the children from the various playgrounds will meet at the auditorium and commence the work of erecting the booths and arranging the display of crafts work done by the children during the playground season in the parks. The booths and displays will be judged on a competitive basis.

The doors of the auditorium will open Friday evening at 7:15 o'clock, and the stage program will get underway at 8:15 o'clock in which talent from all the playgrounds will appear. Each playground will be allowed ten minutes time on the program and all of the acts will be judged on a competitive basis.

Sidney Lutzin, in charge of the city's playground activities, said this morning that during the playground season the children in the various parks had been active in craftsmanship and that the exhibit this year would undoubtedly be the finest ever arranged by the playgrounds.

The playground season, closing this week, has been one of the most successful held in the history of the department, he said.

Prisoner Without Crime

New York—The cell door unaccountably slammed behind William Colton, a cleaner, as he worked on a seldom-used floor of Brooklyn criminal court building—and made him a prisoner.

"I'm locked in," he shouted out the window to a man across the street. "Get somebody to let me out."

"Gwan back and sit down," the man shouted back. "You're crazy."

Three hours later Colton's cries brought a clerk who released him.

PORT EWEN

Daughters of Liberty

Port Ewen, Aug. 26.—An interesting meeting of the Sons and Daughters of Liberty was held at Pythian Hall last Wednesday when Esopus Council, No. 42, had the pleasure of receiving their state councilor, Iren Hulsaple, state associate councilor, Rebecca Melvin, state vice councilor, Ida L. Barry, ex-state councilor, Louise Van Pelt, ex-state associate councilor, Katherine A. Schleele, deputy state councilor, Myrtle A. Taylor, ex-state councilor Mildred Switzer, deputy state councilor, Hazel B. Tanney. Guests were present from Poughkeepsie, Ozone Park, New York, Long Island, Yonkers, Bellrose Manor and Kingston.

Surprise Party

Port Ewen, Aug. 26.—A number of friends and relatives gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Jordan recently to honor Mrs. Jordan's sister, Mrs. Lawrence Jordan, with a surprise party on her birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Mabie, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mabie, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hornbeck, Mrs. Elvin Hutchings, Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Spinnenweber, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hutt, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Schuyler Rockefeller, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hutchings, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hotelling, Miss Roberta Hotelling, Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Jordan and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jordan, Mrs. Ira Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Lane of Kingston.

Boy Scout Camping Trip

Port Ewen, Aug. 26.—Boy Scouts of Troop No. 26 have returned from a three-days' camping trip in Watson Hollow. The boys declared it to be one of the best camping trips so far experienced. Fishing, hiking and swimming were some of the sports enjoyed. The trip was made possible through the generosity of Mrs. Chauncey Freer and Mrs. Harry Van Ormer, owners of the camp ground, and the Canfield Supply Co., who furnished transportation. Those present were Jack and Bud Potter, Henry Schmidt, Jr., Franklin Sheltzner, Edward Mains, Jr., Clark Mains, John Clark, Thomas Jones, Gene Roosa, Dick Winchell, Frank O'Donnell, Bruce Palen and camp director, Scoutmaster Frank Palen.

Village Notes

Port Ewen, Aug. 26.—Mrs. E. A. D. Potter, Frank Palen and son, Bruce, motored today to the New York World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Van Orden and daughter, Miss Ruth Van Orden, motored yesterday to Cohoes to visit friends.

Miss Eva White was the weekend guest of Mr. and Mrs. Severin Hushack of Scotland.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gumaer, accompanied by Miss Martha Schultz of New Salem, left Saturday morning to motor to San Antonio, Texas, to attend the graduation of their son, Flying Cadet J. Edward Gumaer, Jr., from Kelly Field, Texas.

The troop committee of Boy Scout Troop 26, spent the weekend camping at Watson Hollow.

Dauids Play Tonight; Elite Giants Booked for Wednesday Night

House Team Will Put on Usual Show; Recs Standing Pat

Full House Expected for Tonight and Wednesday; Elite Giants Have Strong Club Ready

It's the celebrated House of David attraction at municipal stadium tonight against the Kingston Recreations. Starting time is 8:30 o'clock. All ladies will again be admitted at half price.

The famous "Bearded Beauties," starring the usual classy players, are making their second appearance of the season, having defeated Kingston earlier by the score of 9 to 2. A week ago the Dauids were scheduled to play the Recreations but continued rains forced the postponement of the game.

Following tonight's attraction at the uptown park Charlie Husta's charges will meet the nationally-known Baltimore Elite Giants of the Negro National League. The Elites are current second place holders in that circuit; after taking the loop leadership in the 1939 season.

But apparently, one team is enough for Manager Husta to worry about at once, especially when both of these clubs are the toughest on the road today. The Dauids, always a colorful troupe for Kingston fans to gaze at, are anxious to make it two in a row over the Recs in tonight's game.

Despite two losses in a row, and three in their last four games, the Recreations are in good shape, to trim the powerful Dauids. For some reason or another the local club always plays its best when the tough teams are booked. That's one main reason why the Recs have a pretty fair result for the season's schedule to date.

Dauids Won Before
In the first meeting between these two teams the Recs were soundly trounced, 9 to 2, with the help of seven errors. But ever since that tussle the Kingston team has been improving rapidly and it wouldn't be too much of a surprise to some local followers if the Recs turned the tables.

The House of David's unusual "pepper" game, a favorite in the minds of Kingston fans, will again be on the schedule for one of the acts tonight. A number of clubs have attempted to match the uncanny skill of these Dauids in this respect but as yet every attempt has failed. Other special features will be given by the Dauids.

As usual the Dauids will feature Jimmy Woods on first base, one of the best initial catchers in the business. Woods is a great thrower and a fine diamond athlete. Mike Janesko, Bill Shadown, Helixon, Battles, Watson and Vann will also be in readiness to give Kingston another battle to the finish.

While two of the best road clubs in the country are preparing for visits to this city the local Recreations will surely have their toughest assignment of the season in combating against the clubs. To get his club at full strength, Manager Husta may come up with a few more changes in his roster. However, nothing definite has been announced as yet.

Wednesday's Attraction
Trailing the Homestead Grays by two games the Baltimore Elite Giants will take off from the usual league duties Wednesday evening for their engagement with the Recs. In the league season to date the Giants have won 22 and dropped 10 to keep in close step with the Grays.

A number of weeks ago the local booking secretary, Charlie Tiano, attempted to obtain the Elite Giants for a game in Kingston but the contacts failed. However, Charlie received definite word that the first opportunity. Ever since Kingston has been shacking some of the finest teams in colored baseball, the strong Elites have been looking forward in meeting Kingston.

The playing roster of the Elite Giants include Kimbro, Butts, hitting .391; Hughes, Hoskins, Scales, Snow, Moore, Curry, Campanello, Perkins, Hubert, Adams, Barnes, Williams, Barbee and Moreland.

Lineups for tonight's game:
Dauids: Watson, cf.; Vann, 2b.; Leonard, 3b.; Helixon, cf.; Shadown, lf.; Woods, 1b.; Battle, ss.; Comiskey, c.; Paone, p.

Boiceville Wins Two
The Boiceville baseball club won two games over the week-end, beating the Woodbourne Prison club and the Wilbur team. Scores were 10 to 0 and 10-4. Earl "Red" Sleight hurled the first victory and pitched one-hit ball. Jack Strubel hurled the triumph over Wilbur. Debrosky, Shultis and Schirck paced the hitters.

Williams Lake Swimmers Cop Two Titles at Woodstock

LOIS PARRY

Lois Parry Paces Scorers With High 20 Points; Event to Be Held Again in 1941

The Williams Lake Athletic Club romped off with both the Junior and Senior team trophies Saturday afternoon at the Water Carnival presented by the Woodstock Country Club in their newly constructed pool. Besides the two team trophies the Williams Lake swimmers also took home 40 medals. Victor Till, of the Woodstock Country Club, director of the meet, predicted that because of the success of Saturday's contest, the water carnival would be an annual affair at Woodstock. The Adirondack Association of the A. A. U. gave their official sanction to the affair.

Lois Parry, who has been doing some spectacular swimming for the Williams Lake Athletic Club all summer long, finished her outdoor season in fine style by capturing individual scoring honors with a total of 20 points, just nine points ahead of her nearest rivals, Jane Grogan, of the Dragon Club in Brooklyn, and Woodrow Prokosh, of the Sutton Club, New York. These two metropolitan swimmers were tied for second honors with 11 points each. Miss Parry piled up her score by capturing four gold medals in the Junior 50 and 100 yard free-style, the senior 100-yard freestyle, and as anchor swimmer on the Williams Lake 200-yard freestyle relay team.

The most thrilling event of the program was the girls' senior 100-yard freestyle swim. Jane Grogan, of the Dragon Club of Brooklyn, who was the favorite to win, set the pace during the first three laps with Lois Parry and Judith Seaton of the Williams Lake Club swimming neck and neck close behind. After the final turn Miss Parry put on a sprint that brought the crowd to their feet and carried her to the finish line inches ahead of Miss Grogan in the fast time of one minute and 15 seconds.

Another exciting race developed in the men's 100-yard freestyle swim in which Woodrow Prokosh of the Sutton Club of New York captured first honors. The real battle of the race, however, was for second position with Walter Himmelberg, who last week captured the American Legion Trophy at Williams Lake, and Joe Heidcamp, last week's second-place winner, battling it out about a length behind Prokosh. Heidcamp managed to even things up for last week by sprinting home about a foot ahead of his teammate. The winner's time was one minute 12 seconds.

The Williams Lake team garnered a total of 81 points to capture team honors. The Dragon Club of Brooklyn, with 11 points, nosed out the Sutton Club of New York for second place by a single point. The Woodstock Country Club finished in fourth position with two points.

Dodgers and Bucs Split; Bees Down Cardinals; Giants and Chicago Divide 2 Games

(By The Associated Press)

Aging Ted Lyons and Sailer Bill Posedel deserve a vote of thanks. They proved to an anxious baseball world that the New York Yankees and the St. Louis Cardinals, possessors of two terrific winning streaks, aren't invincible, after all.

It took some courage for the two old men to find that out. The Yanks, thirsting for blood, had just won six straight from the Detroit Tigers and the Cleveland Indians. The Cards nine successes were making their admirers recall the stirring moments of the stretch spurt that nearly caught the Cincinnati Reds last year.

Lyons' 18 years of service in the majors stood him in good stead in the first game of the White Sox-Yanks doubleheader at the Stadium before 70,740 yesterday. He handcuffed the Yanks with three hits to blank them 1-0 in the opener. Posedel twirled a five-hitter to give the Boston Bees a 4-1 victory over the Cardinals.

It is interesting to note, however, that both the beaten teams have fine recuperative powers. The Yanks came back, with Ernie Bonham pitching a five-hitter, to blast the Sox 3-1 in the afterpiece, while the Cards outslugged the Bees 8-5 to square the day's proceedings.

Hudson Beats Tribe
The Yankee split, plus Washington's victory over the Cleveland Indians by a 5-4 count, left the world champions in third place, only 5 1/2 games back of the Tribe. That Washington victory was Rookie Sid Hudson's 13th of the season and sent the Tribe down to its fourth straight defeat.

Johnny Allen, first of four Indian pitchers, was headed for the showers with a four run blast in the first inning. The Detroit Tigers also cut the Indians' edge over second place to 2 1/2 games by thumping the Athletics 7-3, as Bucky Newsom tossed a nine-hitter to chalk up his 16th victory of the season.

In the American League's other offering, the Boston Red Sox dropped into the second division by losing the first game to Johnny Niggeling and the St. Louis Browns, 7-2, but then crept back into fourth place with a 17-3 win in the short night game, during which Jimmy Foxx hit a homer with the bases loaded to knock in four of the 11 runs the Sox scored in the sixth inning.

The top club in the National League fared better than the top one in the American. The Cincinnati Reds won a pair from the Phillies, 3-2 and 6-5, to stretch their advantage over the Brooklyn Dodgers to 7 1/2 games. Jim Turner pitched five-hit ball to win the first and in the second the Reds simply out-hammered the Phils, despite two homers by Johnny Rizzo.

The Dodgers split with the hard-punching Pittsburgh Pirates, losing the first 4-3 on Dick Lana-

Pittsburgh's Van Robays Is Dangerous Clutch Hitter

Has .276 Average but Rates With the Best as Hitter in Pinches; Youngster Likes Frank Frisch

Following every baseball season the respective front offices of the National and American Leagues issues many averages, pitching, batting and fielding. Although much attention is given to the mound workers, many fans cast an eager eye at the batting averages.

On this basis alone do some spectators class their ball players. However, the idea, although sound in some ways, isn't fully justifiable for all of the diamond athletes. For instance, Ellsworth "Babe" Dahlgren, of the Yankees, is a low hitter as far as averages show but he is quite robust in runs batted in.

Quite a number of years ago Frankie Frisch, then with the Cardinals, liked nothing better than to have his hitting clip soar over the .300 mark. For that matter he still likes to see his members above the charmed circle. But Fordham Frankie, a John McGraw star, is one of the believers that sometimes a .285 hitter or so is just as good as a .340 hitter.

Frankie sees it this way. A .340 hitter gets hits but plenty of those base knocks are wasted with two outs and runners on bases. More advantage is forthcoming from a player who hits consistently at .285 and who knocks in runs when it counts. All of this preview work introduces the topic for today—Maurice Van Robays, hard-hitting outfielder with the Pittsburgh Pirates, who is currently hitting .276 but manages to be one of the best run-drivers in the National League today.

Van Robays, who came to the Pirates during the latter part of the 1938 season, has knocked in 77 runs to date, a sturdy bit of evidence to back up his .276 average which has been a very important bit of help in bringing the Bucs up the ladder in the National League.

Started With Tigers
Maurice started his coming up in 1934 when the Detroit Tigers gave him a contract. But in the 1935 season he became ill and the Tigers gave up on him and granted him his release. Van Robays, pronounced Van Ro-bays, kept his winning-spirit alive and returned to baseball again.

In 1937 he was with the Ogdens-burg club of the Canadian-American League. At the young age of 20 Maurice had a sensational year with the club. He led in runs scored, runs batted in, hits, extra base hits, total bases, homers and had the highest batting average. His average was .368.

During his previous seasons he had played first base in 25 games, 38 at second and 41 in the outfield. Now he began to devote all of his attention to the picket line. Immediately the Pirates, mainly Bill Benswanger, of the front office, took notice of the youngster's possibilities.

The Pirates purchased him and sent him to Montreal on option. Then he was shipped to Knoxville for more seasoning. He hit .307 with the Smokies. At the start of the 1938 year the Royals decided to keep Van Robays and when the Pirates recalled him to Forbes Field his average was .320. When Maurice came in he was accompanied by Bob Elliott, another sparkling outfielder for the Pirates.

Their first job was against the Reds. Elliott hit a homer, two doubles and a single in his debut. Van Robays smacked out three singles. The Beligan outfielder, while on his way to glory in the National League, gives Manager Frisch a pull.

"If a player can't learn anything from Frankie, it's just too bad," said Van Robays. While Maurice was making his start with the Bucs a lot of comments came to Frankie that the new outfielder wasn't good enough. But the Fordham Flash stuck by the rookie.

Today Maurice Van Robays is one of the most dangerous batsmen in the major leagues. His run driving is up to par with 77 runs so far. His hitting, yes only .276, but still enough for a lot of runs to be scored. As far as Manager Frisch is concerned Van Robays will be a fixture with the Corsairs as long as he keeps driving in runs.

Bob Bush Loses Tough Tilt as He Allows 8 Hits; Recs Muff Chances to Score Runs

There's only one solution for the Recreations' defeat in Wingdale Sunday afternoon. The Hustamen must have been saving themselves for tonight's encounter with the House of David. Yes, the Recs lost the game by 5 to 4.

The one run setback cost Bobbie Bush another tough decision as he held the Harlem Valley team to eight hits while Kingston collected 11. Bush also tried to win his own game by punching out three hits.

Opposing Bush on the hill for the State Hospital club was Norm Lewis, formerly of the Texas Rangers. Norm pitched good ball all the way and kept Kingston in check. The Hustamen threatened the winning moundman at times but failed to take advantage of scoring opportunities.

With Chappie Van Derzee unable to make the trip Kingston presented a new lineup. Manager Carl Husta made his first start of the season at second base, shifting "Red" McLean to short. Celuch and Schatzel made up the rest of the inner-defense.

Bush, McLean and Mac Tiano paced Kingston in the hit parade while Sottile and Lewis took the batting honors for Wingdale. Both flingers rapped out three hits.

Bruins Blank Churchmen
Paced by the clutch hitting of Jack St. John, Manager Mark Silverman and "Chick" Stokette, the fast-stepping Bruins of the Junior City Softball League defeated First Dutch in the rubber tilt of their three-game series Thursday evening at Forsyth Park. The final count was 12-9.

Silverman boomed out a tremendous home run in the top of the fourth, while Bud Gildersleeve also cashed in with a four-master. Sensational fielding featured the game on both sides, with Don Sweeney, Dick McConnell and Don Everett coming up with circus plays. Bill Burns toiled on the hill for the winners and rang up his sixth shutout of the current campaign.

Financial and Commercial

New York, Aug. 26 (AP)—Stocks developed a moderate following in today's stock market despite lack of pronounced stimulation in either the domestic or foreign news.

Dealings were exceptionally slow throughout. Many leaders loaded in slightly lower territory and a wide assortment was unchanged from Saturday's closing quotations. Near the final hour trends were a trifle uneven. Transfers were at the rate of approximately 150,000 shares.

Wall Street was still bullish for the British as the latter bombed Berlin. Intensified German air raids over England, however, served to keep most speculative forces on the fence. Delays in the national tax program also were viewed as a brake on markets and industry.

Strength of British empire dollar loans was a feature of a sluggish bond department. Commodities were quiet and mixed.

Attracting feeble support occasionally were U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Woolworth, General Motors, Cusick-Wright "A," Kennecott, N. Y. Central, Chesapeake & Ohio and North American.

Backward were du Pont, Montgomery Ward, Pennsylvania, International Nickel and Air Reduction.

Slightly ahead in the curb now and then were Phoenix Securities, Creole Petroleum and Draper Corp. Hesitant were Electric Bond & Share, St. Regis Paper and Niagara Hudson Power.

Quotations by Morgan Davis & Co., members of the New York Stock Exchange, 15 Broad street, New York city, branch office 48 Main street, R. B. Osterhoudt, manager.

Caldwell Is Rearrested On Grand Larceny Charge

Ralph Caldwell, 32, of Ellenville, who has just finished serving a sentence of 10 days on a public intoxication charge, was re-arrested Sunday on a warrant charging grand larceny, second degree. He is to have a hearing on the charge before Justice Friend E. Wilkoff of the town of Rochester at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Bicycle Collides With Truck Loaded With Hay

Mrs. Carl Schroeder of Woodstock received injuries to her legs and the bicycle she was riding was damaged, when it was in collision with a truck loaded with hay about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon. The truck was owned by Roland Shultis of Woodstock.

Stock Averages Showed Gains in Trading for Week

The stock market closed the week Saturday with little price movement, while the volume of 88,380 shares was, with the exception of July 27, smallest since August 3, 1918. The Dow-Jones industrial and rail averages showed slight gains for the day, the former being up .14 point, to 125.48 and rails gaining .05, to 26.86. Utilities were unchanged at 22.00.

For the week as a whole averages showed gains for five out of the six sessions. Improvement started first part of the week, as it became evident that Germany was not staging the quick victory over Great Britain that had been feared. The confidence expressed by Prime Minister Churchill in his speech first part of the week, as he told of the progress being made in British airplane production and the safe transportation of large quantities of munitions from this country, also had its effect in restoring some measure of stability to the market. Friday's decline in prices was the first in a week and was ascribed chiefly to profit-taking.

Business news on the whole was good, but did not appear to have much effect upon the market. Department store sales showed a good gain over the same week last year and construction is reaching a high level, contracts placed in July being the largest in ten years, while last week was the second highest for the year. The gain in construction activity, however, is largely due to public expenditure, private contracts being well under a year ago.

The steel industry is feeling the effect of the demand for structural steel in addition to improvement in orders from makers of automobiles as production of the new models gets under way. Steel output in both the Chicago and Pittsburgh districts is scheduled to hit new high levels for the movement this week. Chicago is to start at 97.5 per cent of capacity and Pittsburgh at 88 per cent, up four points from last week.

Earnings of Commonwealth and Southern for the third quarter are expected to show a better rate of improvement over last year than was shown during the first six months, as a result of improvement in drought conditions in the South.

Steel was the most active stock last week, making a net gain of a point in turnover of 41,700 shares. General Motors was second on the list, up 1 1/4 in 33,300 shares turnover. Others on the active list and gaining a point or more for the week were Loft, International Nickel (up 5/4), Bethlehem Steel, Chrysler and Int. Pap. & Power, pfd.

Of paramount importance to business these days is the action to be taken by the administration and by Congress in the matter of armamentization of plants erected for production of defense material and of probable not too much use for other purposes, and the extent and details of the proposed excess profits tax. It has been claimed that failure to definitely settle these matters is holding up defense preparations.

Radio Training School

The Ulster County Home Bureau, led by Miss Everette Parsons, will have its first radio training school designed primarily for those individuals to appear on the radio this season over WKNY.

However, Miss Parsons announced today that the classes beginning with Wednesday, August 28, will be open to all interested people. The first class begins at 10:30 a. m. and will be devoted to lectures on speaking and writing for radio by WKNY's program director, Ezra McIntosh. Miss Parsons said today that all those planning to attend the lecture classes bring paper and pencil. Mr. McIntosh will give an outline of the history of radio, the psychology of the spoken word, script writing, interviews, dramatic presentations and personality. The class assignment will be for each person to write an original script to bring to the second class at which time they will be criticized and a voice test will be given in WKNY's studios. The classes will be held in the Governor Clinton Hotel.

Duke of Guise, Noted Frenchman Dies at Larache

DUKE OF GUISE

London, Aug. 26 (AP)—The death of the Duke of Guise, pretender to the French throne, at Larache, Spanish Morocco, was reported from Madrid today by Reuters.

British news agency.

The duke caused his first political flurry February 2, 1933, when he issued a manifesto calling for the establishment of a "dictatorship under the monarchy." Up to that time, aside from receiving delegations of French royalists who called on him in his exile, he had taken no active part in politics. The 1933 flurry was short lived.

Born in Paris September 4, 1874, he was not called upon to assume the pretender's role, with the enforced exile it entails, until the death of his cousin, Duke Philippe of Orleans, on March
